

What is XML-RPC?

- XML-RPC implements RPC using open Web standards.
- Data is encoded ("marshalled") in XML using a special DTD for XML-RPC.
- The RPC call is made using HTTP.
- The application exporting the function must implement or be attached to a HTTP server.

